All Star Driver Education Username: _____

Dear parent or legal guardian,

In Minnesota, parents of homeschooled students are permitted to teach the classroom portion of drivers education. To apply for All Star Driver Education's Minnesota Drivers Education Book Course, the Minnesota Department of Public Safety requires that you:

1. Provide a letter from the superintendent of the school district in which you live stating that your child is a fulltime homeschooled student.
2. Check the following box to certify that you:
 Have a valid drivers license

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____

Date of Signature: _____

Please mail or fax this form along with proof of home instruction to the address below. As soon as we receive them, we'll update your account and send you a quick confirmation email. You can then complete payment, after which, we'll mail out your course materials, so you can get started on your drivers education as soon as possible.
